Formal announcement appears in this issue of The Sea Coast Echo, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election to take place Saturday, October 3.

Mr. Colson was born in Bay St. Louis 48 years ago and has been an active resident of this city all his life, always interested in its welfare and the well-being of its people. He is asking not only that a laudable ambition be fulfilled—that of being mayor and serving the city—but that "Never on this earth," is said to he be given that opportunity of giving the city the benefit of an ad-In brief, the senior senator does the city and its tax-payers to administration that he thinks will serve

"While I believe in holding down cost of government, yet not to the extent that it will suffer by a penurious policy, I am in favor of intelligent retrenchment."

Mr. Colson expressed himself as favoring many improvements, especially that kind that would bring more people to visit these shores and to stay as long as possible. He favors a public pier and building over the water, a building that would be spacious and ample to take care of many people whose presence would not conflict with one another. He is of the opinion that we cannot get people to come here if there is nothing to attract. And after we get them here, he says, we must have Mrs. Lorena Peacock Dies

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

THE LEGISLATURE TO CONSIDER NATCHEZ TRACE PARKWAY PROBLEM

(Jackson Clarion-Ledger) OVERNOR White's inclusion T of "legislation to enable receipt of Federal funds for the Natchez Trace" among the matters to be submitted for legislative consideration during the impending special session is welcomed by the thousands of Mississippians who realize the benefits to accrue from completion of this proejct, which would give Mississippi another 300-mile, 22-foot paved highway. Federal funds are available. The hitch is that the Federal government requires the state to furnish the rights-of-way and the State, through legislation enacted last spring, requires the counties traversed by the Natchez Trace to pay half the costs of rights-of-way.

The Legislature appropriated $200,000 for the state's share. Several of the counties traversed by the proposed military highway contend they are financially unable to pay half the costs of rights-of-way, and support the contention with figures. And it is a fact that the financial condition of at least two of these counties is such that they cannot sell bonds in the open market. We don't know what the Legislature will do in regard to this matter, but Governor White is to be commended and con gratulated for submitting it. To call this project a "bargain" for the state is to express it inadequately. The Federal government will pay all other costs, and this highway and parkway from Natchez to Northeast Mississippi would be a very useful and valuable adjunct to the primary state highway system.

FELLOW TRAVELERS

(Clarksdale Register) CENATOR Joe Robinson was reelected in Arkansas by a majority of 100,000 votes and Senator Pat Harrison was returned with a wide margin of 63,000 ballots. However, there is a difference between Arkansas and Mississippi; conditions are by no means similar and election laws in Arknasas are not in keeping with those on this side of the river.

Pat's majority, all things being equal, was as great as that for Robinson. Nevertheless, all this and that as to majority is a mere bagatelle. Pat and Joe and FDR are now in the same streamlined and air-conditioned train-traveling toward newer phases of the New Deal that will mean as much to Mississippi as to the other states of the nation. Nature, after all seems to exist for the excellent; at any rate, the voters think so.

The streets are filled, during certain hours of the day, with numbers of happy, laughing, care-free children, whose main thought is to get to school on time or get home to dinner on time, and as a rule they give very little thought to passing or approaching cars. They will play in and out among traffic heedless of the danger of being hit by a car, leaving the autoist to avoid them as best he can. So autoists are urged to be careful and to slow up when passing a crowd of school child-But not all the care should devolve upon the autoists. Children should be taught to keep out of the middle of the street, not to loiter on the streets and play going to and from school. Teachers and parents should impress upon the children the necessity of exercising care on their part in using the streets, and the authorities should see that vehicle drivers observe the traffic laws as to speed and careful driving, especially during the recess hours of the schools and the hours when the children are going to and from the school buildings.

In fact, the News won't let him fade away if there is a chance of keeping him in the limelight. You know people buy papers to read about Bilbo and what he is doing. More Reductions

Long Distance Rates

For the seventh time in the past ten years, long distance rates have again been voluntarily reduced.

Effective September 1, the rates for both personto-person and station-to-station inter-state long distance calls were reduced to points 235 miles or more distant. The amount of the saving on calls ranges from five cents to $1.50 depending upon the distance.

Also on inter-state person-to-person calls the charges for overtime after six minutes of conversation are reduced. (Overtime charges begin after three minutes conversation.)

It is estimated that these reductions will save Bell telephone users $7,350,000 annually.

THE POWER OF PRIDE.

What though we hurt a gentle heart That fondly loved us long, What though dear friends in coldness part To brood on fancied wrong? If so our pride demands,

We must if pride commands. What though a nation send its sons, Marching on to battle grim, While to the roar of the rumbling guns The hope of the world grows dim? If so their pride decrees,

They must their pride appease.

This pride that wrought an angel's fall And oft has wrecked the world: Still holds humanity in thrall; Still when the gauntlet's hurled A man must fight for pride. For the evil might of pride.

Yet shall this upstart source of strife One day flee in disgrace; When love becomes the lord of life, Then lowliness shall take the place Men now allow to pride; No more we'll bow to pride.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

(Dedicated to Mrs. Emile J. Gex) YOUP always makes an acceptable beginning for the principal meal of the day; it holds a vital place in the dietary of the young and old. For the busy housekeeper or business woman, who hasn't time to prepare soup, there are soups prepared by master chefs. The turn of the can opener, plus a moments heat will furnish her with delicious soup.

Summer Broth

- 3 large beets' 2 cooked, 1 raw 1 quart meat stock
- Juice of 1 lemon 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 cup cream

Peel and grate the 2 cooked beets, add to the stock with lemon juice and sugar. Simmer 5 minutes. Meanwhile grate the raw beet, add to first mixture and strain through cheese cloth, pressing to extract all but juice. Scald and add cream, chill and when serving top each portion with a teaspoon of whipped cream, sweet or sour. * * *

The L&HIS SENDING over 40,000 YOUNGSTERS TO SCHOOL

Well, we, THE LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD, are also sending children to school thousands of them in the states which we serve. We pay over $4,000,000 in taxes annually, and a large part of this money goes for the support of public schools and state universities, helping to modernize your school buildings, providing better equipment, employing more teachers.

But the school isn't the only thing we share with you as a tax-paying home-owner. We, too, maintain a home—a "Home Sweet Home on Rails" for thousands of travelers daily. We buy food and furniture, employ help, make repairs, fix electric lights, wash dishes—just as you do.

Running trains, hauling freight and passengers is an important part of our job. But we never forget that an equally important part of our job is our responsibility to the communities we serve—to be good neighbors in all that the word implies!

L&N RATES ARE NOW LOWEST IN HISTORY Travel by train is the safest, most comfortable and most economical. Before you consider any means of travel, note these new low L & N passenger rates.

Personal and General FORTHCOMING MARRIAGE BRINGS BACK TO MIND DAYS OF OTHER TIME. R. and Mrs. Walter C. Wagner, of New Orleans, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marie Louise, to Mr. Leo Leach. The happy event will be solemnized September 15th, at St. Anthony's church, Canal and Olympia streets, New Orleans at 8 o'clock mass.

Miss Wagner is the daughter of Walter Charles Wagner, a former student of St. Stanislaus College and pretty Maria Combel, who was noted as one of the late Miss Amandine Wagner's best singing pupils. That was in the days when Miss Wagner's class consisted of Lulu Matranga, Blanche Avery, Mabel Cazeneuve, Adelle Spotorno and Maria Combel. Both of Miss Wagner's grand parents will be present, Joseph Combel, a former and highly respected resident of the Bay and Mr. Charles A. Wagner of New Orleans.

Miss Wagner is a sister of Professor Charles A. Wagner, director of Parochial School bands.

The attendants will be Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Enright of New York City, for whom Miss Wagner and Mr. Leach were attendants five years ago, when they were married in New Orleans. Little Isabel Wagner, sister of the bride will be junior bride's maid. A reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner 969 North Carrollton avenue, New Orleans.
